"The Cause we bring is in fact the Cause of all the Provinces —it is the Cause of every British Subject in every Part of the British Dominions—it is the Cause of every Man who loves or would secure every where."——

WHEN I read the History of Great Britain, its growth, freedom, and opulence; the many thousand comments on its well regulated laws and constitution; the unbounded extent of its commerce—its flourishing fitnesses—in short, crowned with all the blessings necessary to raise a nation the wonder of the universe—what a delightful prospect presents! Sure must the reader cry, the British nation is happy.—But after all these pleasing refinements, when the British historian casts his eyes from the page, and allows himself a serious reflection, how all the gilded descriptions vanish!—Instead of delightful scenes, he beholds the dreary wake of misery and war.—How has the historian has imposed on his readers, or his volumes taught but fiction.——These delightful seasons have been, when the British nation shone like the meridian sun, transfusing its glory thro' the world—behold with reverence—not insulted by every upstart power.——From this exalted eminence they have successively fallen, and every day their grandeur decreases.——Nothing is so affecting as to behold a flourishing nation falling and sinking to ruin.—It shocks the man when he reads the fall of Rome and other mighty empires, from the summit of magnificence to the depth of misery—but how much more intimately is it felt, when he beholds his own country hastening to a dissolution—then he feels with parental affection, and raises the whole exertion of his soul—he examines the cause—seeks the prime spring of danger, and boldly rushes to defend his country.

The ruin of Britain I don't require the spirit of prophecy—present history suffices—how disordered—inactive—how convulsed!—Where that grandeur, that manliness, that REVERENCE which were thy peculiar glory——that liberty and security which proclaimed your subjects happiest of mortals!—Alas, they are no more.—That name which alarmed the world is now hooted at by powers of yesterday—the sickly Spaniard vaunts at his profligacy, and the gaudy Frenchman laughs at your fall.——Look round and view the transactions of your ministers and among the men who conduct the publick weal—behold their actions—what adequate they heap upon you—what has accrued to your honor by their management for these many years past.—Not one among the number but acts from principles derogatory to the British name.——Fraud, injustice, cruelty, MURDER and oppression are become the standards of your government.—Look around and see what offices of trust are filled by men qualify'd for their stations—then examine what are filled by men unworthy to breath in your air—turn the sad out, and most of your offices will be vacant.——Consider these things before too late for remedy.—Ye men who have thrown the nation into its wild disorder, consider in what a desperate cause you are engaged—to shake the foundation of the English constitution.——Examples you have before your eyes—if the Stuarts wants proof, let him search for the fate of Charles—if abandon'd ministers want to read their doom, let them search the annals of their corrupt brethren.—The British nation have often rous'd like a roaring lion; tho' long lain asleep, has not forgot its fury and glories; and woe be to that man or body of men by whom their liberties are endangered.——I know every heart beats for freedom; but like men generous and bold, despise at every little folly of despotism, but to persist draws their highest resentment.—How soon their fury may burst God only knows.—In short—the British nation has seen its best days.——No blessing they enjoy in purity—their free elections have been stain'd with gross fraud, famine and discord reign predominant—among the poor—where that invigorating bloom—examine their gate, depicted countenances—from whence does this proceed?—AT HOME—a cringing courtier, void of the sentiments of man, nurses his pension and lolls in idleness—while honest industry begs for bread.——AND IS THIS IN BRITAIN?——

Thus I tell—who sits slumbering on your throne—rouse and shake the dust that hangs upon you—behold your kingdom—see its fall—restore those blessings which are peculiar to Englishmen—no longer feast on the smiles of courtiers, but listen to the cries of millions of your subjects.—Stop their cries, least they hurl into your dwelling and break your repose—put your own hands to the helm—no longer trust your state to villains—don't rule, but quickly search out the springs of discontent—root out the wicked from before you—hearken to the petitions of your people, and kick flatterers from your presence—examine the English constitution; learn its virtues, left its fury come upon you—ruin it extensively, Oh man, hearken, for I speak for the welfare of the kingdom—need I urge you to your own good—need To'l aloud to stop you ——————————Take warning, remember their spirits abhor slavery as much as ever—and those that abhor will effectuate arrogance.—Your way is clear—abandon miscreants—promote honest men—and your kingdom is firm.

PLAIN TRUTH.

WE are informed, that one M——n, an Englishman, who some time since came over to our Sovereign Lords Commissioners to be provided for, was by them constituted a tide-surveyor in the Port of Baltimore, which he had not long magnified his office, till, going on board a vessel to search for plunder, he ascended into the hold over which the honest Tars laid and opened the hatches, and set a pot of combustibles on fire, as in the case of rats or other vermin they mean to expel by smoak. The Captain, Mate, &c. coming on board mean while and smelling the burning asafœtida, sulpher, &c. enquired into the matter, and were answered, they were smoaking a great rat they had lately discovered in the hold. The Capt. ordered the hatches to be unbar and found the reptile aboard and indeed nearly smoaked to death, lying face downwards at the bottom of the vessel. This gallant officer, we further learn, had hardly got over his smoaking, till, sitting in the coffee-house one evening, among a number of gentlemen, a large dog suddenly seized him by the genitals, which he bit so severely that a great flux of blood followed, and Mr. M. in a bad condition was conveyed home. It is said he soon after went to Annapolis, where things appearing not altogether to his mind, he is since returned to Boston, where he may next year expect an invitation to dine with the Governor and Council, and be treated with all the respect his friend P——r, the modern no dog nor man has yet manifested the indistinctive sagacity to discover a BEAST OF PREY, whatever flagrant evidence the daring coxcomb has given of a disposition that way.

Proceedings of the District of Montague.

AT a Meeting of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the District of Montague, legally warned and convened the 5th of April 1773, to hear and take into consideration the Pamphlet of the Town of Boston relative to the Rights and Grievances of the Colonies. The following things were voted by a majority of the meeting, viz. ELIPHALET ALLIS, Moderator.

After reading the Pamphlet, voted to choose a Committee of Correspondence with the Committee of the Town of Boston to consist of seven persons, to write to said Committee after having laid their doings before this meeting for their approbation.——Then Moses Gunn, Moses Barbour, Elipahalet Allis, Stephen Tuttle, Peter Bishop, Nathaniel Gunn, jun. & Judah Wright, were chosen. The meeting was then adjourned to the 20th of April current.

April 20th, met according to adjournment, when the Committee laid the following Draught before the Town.

To the Committee of the Town of Boston.

Gentlemen,

HAVING carefully perused your Pamphlet of the 20th November last, containing a State of the Rights of the Colonists, with the Infringements on those Rights (which came to us about three months after publication) we are of opinion, that you have in general justly stated our Rights as Men, as Christians and as Subjects.

As Christians, we have a Right to worship God according to the Dictates of Conscience, owing all religious Obedience to him who hath declared his Kingdom is not of this World.

As Men and as Subjects we have a Right to Life, Liberty and Property: These we have in our natural Birth-Right, being descended from those renowned Ancestors, who crossed the Atlantic at their own Expence purchased the Soil of the Natives, and who with their Successors have defended it with Treasure and Blood: Confirmed in the most ample Manner by the Royal Charter, whereby the People of this Province have the sole and absolute property of the Soil in Fee Simple, with all Appurtenances, Waters, Rivers, Mines, &c. except only a Fifth Part of Gold and Silver Ore reserved to the Crown.

As to Infringements on our Rights, We do not pretend fully to understand the Power of Vice-Admiralty Courts; but that there is so great a Difference made between Subjects intitled to the same Liberties and Immunities within the Colonies and in the Realm, as there appears to be, affords Matter of Conviction, that the Interest of the People represented, interspersed with the Interest of legislative Bodies, is their only Security against Partiality and Injustice, and that a Parliament at Three Thousand Miles Distance, can never have an equitable Right to bind the Colonies in all Cases whatever. (1)

That the Commissioners of the Customs or any "set of Men," known or "unknown in our Charter," should have General Warrants, to search Houses, Shops, Chests, &c. is illegal; and hath been publickly declared to be so, within the Realm, in the great Cause between John Wilkes, Esq; and the Earl of Halifax.

The Prohibition of the Transportation of Wool over any of the Waters, Rivers, &c. of this Province, absolutely granted by Charter, and the Restraint on the Manufacture of Iron (since the One is so absolutely granted) we look upon as great Grievances, implying a Right to demolish the several Clauses of our Charter at Pleasure.

How ministerial Instructions have so much to do with our Constitution as that one Branch of our Legislature should become a mere ministerial Engine, we find not: Since the Governor, Council and House of Representatives are by Charter constituted a compleat legislative Body with inherent Powers to make all Laws for ordering, regulating and taxing the Inhabitants of the Province.

That an Act of any other than our own Legislature should be made for the sole Purpose of raising a Revenue in the Colonies, is an Innovation which stands in Opposition to several Clauses of our Charter, and to which we can never pay a willing Obedience. And in consequence of this, that a number of civil Officers in this Province, who hold Offices during Pleasure, should be rendered Independent of the People for their Support, whose Lives and Fortunes are so much in their Hands, is very alarming, especially as we see not why every other Officer, dependent on the Crown for a Commission, has not an equal Right to expect the same Independence of the People.

We thank the Town of Boston for their patriotic Zeal in the common Cause, particularly as their Pamphlet hath paved the Way for a full Discussion of our Natural and Charter Rights in the General Assembly at their late Session, whereby much Light hath been cast on the Subject; we reflect with Gratitude and Pleasure on their learned Labor in Defence of our just Rights, in which they have discovered a thorough Knowledge of our Constitution and great Firmness in Defence of it. (2)

Gentlemen, we look upon the particular Occasion of your Letter to be very alarming to every sensible Lover of his Country. We acknowledge the Activity and Vigilance of the Town of Boston, trusting that salutary and important Ends to the publick Good have been and still may be answered thereby. We consider the Infringements of our Rights stated in the Pamphlet as being what in Reason and Justice ought to give each Concern to every Friend of his Country, and excuse his Endeavours in all suitable, lawful Methods to obtain Redress. We hope that the Knowledge of our natural and constitutional Rights may be still further encreased and propagated among People of all Ranks.—That the natural Principle of Self-preservation may be timely and thoroughly awakened and unreservedly dwelled.—That a criminal and scandalous Inattention or Indifference to our Rights, and a mean Submission to the Invasion of them, may be an Infamy never justly charged upon us, esteeming a tame Submission to Slavery more infamous than Slavery itself.

This Draft being twice read distinctly in a very full Meeting of the Freeholders, &c. it was approved, and voted nem. con.

Voted that the District Clerk be directed to send a Copy of the Votes to the Committee of Correspondence of the Town of Boston.

A true Copy of the Votes.

MOSES GUNN, Clerk.

In COUNCIL, June 4, 1773.

THE Committee having reported to the Board the following Anſwer to the Governor's Speech at the Opening of the General Court, the ſame was read and unanimouſly accepted, and thereupon Ordered, That William Brattle, Jeremy Powell, James Pitts, Benjamin Greenleaf, and Jedediah Preble, Eſqrs. be a Committee to preſent the ſame to his Excellency,

THO'S FLUCKER, Secr'y.

To His EXCELLENCY

THOMAS HUTCHINSON, Eſq;

Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, &c.

The ADDRESS of His Majeſty's COUNCIL.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

THE Board have duly conſidered your Excellency's Speech at the opening of the General Court. It gives us great Pleaſure that the Boundary Line between this Province and New-York is ſo amicably ſettled. By this Settlement, if confirmed by His Majeſty's Gracious Approbation, the Animoſities among the Borderers, which have been carried to a great Height will probably be quieted, and not again diſturb the Peace of the neighbouring Parts of the two Provinces. vid pa. 295.

We humbly hope for that Confirmation; and in the mean Time ſhall be ready to concur in any ſuitable Order for running the agreed Line as ſoon as may be. We thank your Excellency for the Part you have had in this Negotiation.

Agreeable to your Excellency's Recommendation, we ſhall take into Conſideration the Right Honorable the Earl of DUNMORE's Letter, with the Act accompanying it, paſſed by the General Aſſembly of Virginia for preventing the counterfeiting the Paper-Money of the other Colonies. As we are happily without a Paper Currency in this Province, we can have no Benefit from the Act of Virginia: Notwithſtanding which, we have, as your Excellency juſtly apprehended, the ſame Diſpoſition to do a good Office for a neighbouring Colony, as if the Benefit were to be reciprocal: eſpecially for a Colony which has rendered itſelf reſpectable by its laudable Concern for American Liberty.

We ſhall alſo conſider what your Excellency has recommended relative to ſome further Proviſion for preventing the counterfeiting the Gold and Silver Currency eſtabliſhed by the Laws of this Province; and ſhall be ready to concur in any Act, that ſhall be proper and moſt effectual for that Purpoſe.

With Reſpect to the Application made by the Indians on the Eaſtern Frontier, we think your Excellency judged right in not giving them Encouragement to expect the Indulgence of a Prieſt. However, if they would be ſatisfied with a Proteſtant Miſſionary, we ſhould think it an adviſeable Meaſure to ſend one to reſide among them. We are of Opinion with your Excellency, that it may be very proper to furniſh them with Goods, agreeable to their Deſire, at ſome Place nearer to their Settlement than Fort Pownall: and this good Effect, beſide others, would reſult from it, that in that Caſe, having leſs Occaſion to be among the Engliſh Inhabitants near the Fort, there would be proportionably the leſs Danger of Quarrels and Contention with them.

Your Excellency having expreſſed your Readineſs chearfully to concur in all Matters that may properly come before the two Houſes "ſo far as the Duty which you owe to the King and to the Province will permit," The Board on their Part, with equal Chearfulneſs will be ready to concur in all ſuch Matters, if the Concurrence be conſiſtent with the like Duties they owe: which Duties, ſo long as the Conſtitution ſhall be a Rule of Conduct, they humbly conceive cannot poſſibly militate with each other.

His EXCELLENCY's Anſwer.

I THANK the Gentlemen of the Council for this Addreſs. It always gives me Pleaſure when my Endeavours for the Publick Service meet with their Approbation.

Yeſterday the Captains Coffin & Jenkins, and this Morning Capt. Hall arrived here from London, by whom we have Papers to the 21ſt of April.

LONDON, April 1.

THE Fortune, Roach, from Philadelphia, is loſt at Cadiz, and all the Crew periſhed.

April 3. A great number of artificers in the ſtocking branch of buſineſs have within theſe few days engaged themſelves for Boſton and New-York, to be employed in that manufactory, now carrying on with ſucceſs in thoſe two places.

Yeſterday the Earl of Dartmouth, as Secretary of State for the Colonies, had a numerous levee of Colony Governors, Agents, and Weſt-India Merchants, at his Lordſhip's Houſe in Charles Street, St. James's Square.

Died of a broken heart, Mr. Henry Neale, late partner with Mr. Fordyce.

April 7. The Duke of Cumberland Packet is arrived from New York in 32 days paſſage.

April 8. The Pruſſian Ambaſſador ſat out from his Houſe yeſterday morning on his return home, without taking leave of the Court as uſual; his recall is ſaid to be occaſioned by the treaty lately negociated between Great Britain, Spain and France.

The alliance now entered into between great Britain, France and Spain, againſt the King of Pruſſia and other of the continental Powers, was preferred chiefly for the following reaſon; becauſe, ſhould an alliance with Pruſſia have taken place, the payment of a certain ſubſidy, due to the magnanimous Frederick for his ſervices laſt war, would have been ſtipulated for, previous to adjuſting the articles of the compact.

It is ſtrongly reported that the King of Pruſſia has demanded of England the ſum of 300,000l. that has been due to him ever ſince the laſt war, according to treaty.

Another report is, that the King of Pruſſia has offered to relinquiſh his demand, provided the King of Great Britain will enter into an alliance to aſſiſt him in oppoſing any attempt that may be made againſt him by France or Ruſſia.

Yeſterday great bets were laid at ſeveral Coffee-houſes about 'change, that War would break out between ſeveral of the Powers of Europe on or before the firſt of June.

Yeſterday it was confidently aſſerted, that France and Ruſſia have entered into an alliance to attack the King of Pruſſia, and drive him out of Poland, and take poſſeſſion of that unhappy kingdom.

The Nicholas, Capt. Hatch, arrived from Boſton, has brought home near one thouſand letters, but other further particulars are not yet known.

However erroneous the People of Boſton may be in their Ideas of Liberty, and the Exemption from the Power of the Britiſh Parliament, yet the extream Honeſty of the meaneſt of them ſurpaſſes Conception, of which the following Proof ſhould be made known to their Mother Country, where ſuch different Principles prevail.—A Fire ſuddenly broke out at Capt. Jordan's, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship Fowey, his Plate, Lady's Jewels, Trinkets, and all the Furniture were thrown out of Windows amongſt a very numerous Mob, with little Expectation of recovering a ſingle Article; but to his Aſtoniſhment he has not loſt the Value of Sixpence, for the next Day the Whole was brought him by various Perſons, even Part of a Bottle of Wine in a Decanter which they were drinking at the Time the Alarm was given. How different the daily Conduct of their abandoned Parent!

Letters from Berlin, brought by the laſt mail from Holland, mention, that they had received letters of a very late date, by two couriers from Buchareſt, from which they had the greateſt reaſon to hope the conferences between the Turkiſh and Ruſſian Plenipotentiaries would terminate in a peace.

They write from Cadiz, that two frigates, of 28 guns each, only wait for a fair wind to ſail for the Havanna with a great quantity of warlike ſtores, eſpecially bombs: theſe are attended by three large tranſports laden with guns, anchors, ſails, and are to take on board 600 ſoldiers draughted out of different regiments; ſeveral other ſhips are freighting on the King's account to Carthagena and Porte-Vela, in the Weſt-Indies.

April 9. A private letter ſays, that the King of Pruſſia has given orders for 30,000 of his beſt troops to hold themſelves ready upon the firſt notice.

It is reported that orders were on Wedneſday night ſent to Portſmouth, to fit out for ſea and man four ſhips of the line with all poſſible ſpeed.

A correſpondent ſays, the Pruſſian miniſter was heard to ſay, on the Evening before his unexpected departure, that his Maſter would ſoon do by Hanover as he had done by Poland, if our Court did not remain quiet reſpecting his Conduct towards the latter.

It is ſaid that Lord Rochford, Secretary of State for the Southern department, finding his health and abilities ſo much on the decay, that he is determined to reſign immediately after the preſent Seſſion: and it is ſaid Lord Weymouth will ſucceed him.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter now lies dangerouſly ill at his houſe in Groſvenor-ſtreet.

April 17. It is almoſt ſelf-evident now that a general Rupture throughout Europe is not far off, and at the ſame Time that Britain (like the inſipid Athenian, who was baniſhed the Town becauſe he did not engage on either Side of the Queſtion) has formed her Alliance with ſuch Powers as may enable her to recover that Credit ſhe had gained at the Eve of the late memorable Peace, and which ſhe could not have loſt, but from chooſing a weak and puſillanimous Council.

The Rumour is very current at the Weſt End of the Town, that the preſent Miniſtry will be ſoon totally changed; and that Lord Chatham muſt once more quit his ſabine Farm, where he has been long revolving in his Mind the Folly of Ambition, however plumed, and return to ſave his Country.

The write from Paris, that the Expectations of a War are ſo general there, that it has had a conſiderable Effect on their Funds, which have fallen conſiderably for ſeveral Days.

Laſt Week Maj. Gen. Dalrymple arrived from St. Vincents. (2)

April 20. Matters are ſaid to be now in a right Train for accommodating the Diſagreements between the Courts of Berlin and London, in a Manner equally advantageous and ſatisfactory to both Parties.

April 21. A Patent is ſaid to be making out for the Creation of his Excellency William Dalrymple, Eſq; to be a Baronet of the Iſland of St. Vincents. (2)

The Lord Hyde Packet Boat, Capt. Goddard, is ſailed from Falmouth for New York.

Peterſburg, March 4. A Courier is juſt arrived from Crim-Tartary, and has brought an account of an Action which happened on the 21ſt of laſt January near Bachiſeria, the capital of the Crimea, between 3000 Ruſſian troops, and 16000 of the mutinous Coſſacks, who gained a compleat victory, killing upwards of 1200 Ruſſians, and made 600 priſoners. They then entered Bachiſeria in triumph, took poſſeſſion of the Cham's palace, where they fortified themſelves, and then plundered the inhabitants. In conſequence of this advice, the Empreſs has ordered 10,000 foot, and 2000 horſe, to march immediately into the Crimea, and reduce the mutineers to their duty by the ſevereſt means.

NEW-YORK, May 31. 1773.

Friday Capt. Hyndſhaw arrived here from Penſacola, in whom came Paſſengers, Maj. Gen. Haldimand, Major Small, Capt. Gamble, Lieut. Uſher, and Enſign Byrd, with Dr. Hall, of the Hoſpital.

Capt. Roach, from the Mole, informs, that the two Frigates lately arrived there, were fitted out at the expence of the Chamber of Commerce in France, in order to regulate the Trade of Hiſpaniola, and that for the future no Veſſel from this Continent would be admitted into any Port of that Iſland, with any other Commodity than Lumber and Caſtle.

Extract of a Letter from Dublin, April 13.

"No one is to ſucceed General Gage, but General Haldimand.——We have a Briſtol Paper of the 9th of April, but little in it; it mentions the Palſave of Sir G. Colebrook; and that the Magiſtrates of Dantzick had delivered all their Privileges up to the King of Pruſſia, and ſworn Allegiance to him.

NEWPORT, May 31. 1773. (6)

Laſt Thurſday arrived in Town the Hon. Judges Oliver and Auchmuty; and the next Day they met at Preſident Wanton's Houſe, on the Buſineſs of the GASPEE; and Yeſterday arrived the Hon. Judges Horſmanden and Smyth from New York. (a)

We hear that two of the Gaſpee's Men arrived on board one of the Men of War in this Harbour, from Boſton, laſt Week, ſaid to be ſent from England, to be Witneſſes to ſupport ſome extraordinary Charges. (b)

Laſt Thurſday a number of young Ladies met at the Houſe of the Rev. Dr. Stiles, and Span, on 69 Wheels, 183 Skeins of Linen Thread, which they preſented Mrs. Stiles.—The quantity Spun on each Wheel, being more than 3 Skeins, is near double of what they call a Day's Work in England & Ireland. Thus it is evident we could, in a few years, beat Great Britain in Manufactures, if not in the Arts of War, Plunder and Maſſacre.

SALEM, June 1.

Yeſterday ſe'nnight we had very ſevere Thunder and Lightning in this and two or three of the neighbouring Towns. The Lightning ſtruck a Tree in the lower Part of this Town; and a Mare, feeding in an adjacent Paſture, was killed by it, but her Colt which was found ſucking her after ſhe was dead, was not hurt.

We hear from Wenham, that a large Barn, belonging to Mr. Lovering, of that Place, was conſumed by Fire laſt Thurſday Night, and two Oxen, and four Calves, that were therein, were alſo deſtroyed in the Flames, with a Variety of farming Utenſils, &c. The Loſs is ſaid to amount to £.100 Sterling.

BOSTON, June 7. 1773.

Friday laſt was the anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth Day, when he entered the 36th Year of his Age; upon which Occaſion his Excellency's Troop of Guards, the Regiment of Militia, with the Company of Grenadiers, and Train of Artillery, dreſs'd in their Uniforms, with a Band of Muſick; likewiſe the Company of Cadets, commanded by the Hon. John Hancock, Eſq; having alſo a Band of Muſick, were muſtered, and performed their ſeveral Exerciſes in the Training Field, to the univerſal Satisfaction as well as Admiration of a more numerous Company of Spectators, both of Town and Country, than were ever known upon the like Occaſion; after which, the whole march'd into Kingſtreet, where Vollies were fired by each reſpectively.——

At Noon his Excellency the Governor, the Members of his Majeſty's Council, with a number of Civil and Military Officers, met at the Council-Chamber, were his Majeſty's and many other loyal Healths were drank. At One o'Clock the Guns at the Batteries in Town, and at Caſtle William, as alſo thoſe on board the Men of War in the Harbour, were fired. In the Afternoon the Members of the Honorable Houſe of Repreſentatives, with many of the Gentlemen of the Town, met at their Chamber in the State Houſe, where a number of conſtitutional and patriotic Toaſts were drank. In the Evening were Fireworks and other Demonſtrations of Loyalty & Joy.

We hear from Eaſt-Town, in New Hampſhire, that about three Weeks ago the Wife of Mr. John Wentworth underwent the Operation of Tapping for the Dropſy, when a Quantity of Water, not leſs than 7 Gallons, was drawn off: On Tueſday laſt ſhe rode on Horſeback from Rocheſter to Newington, and on Wedneſday Morning the Operation was again performed, when twelve Quarts were drawn off. What is remarkable in this Woman's Caſe is, that the Diſorder doth not appear to be in the leaſt complicated, ſhe being in every other reſpect perfectly healthy, feeling no other Inconvenience from Water but the Weight. It is five Years ſince the Diſorder came on, in which time ſhe has had two Children, the laſt of which, about eight Months old, ſhe ſuckled till within twelve Days paſt, and the Child is very healthy.

By Capt. Hall, who arrived this Morning in ſix Weeks from London, we are informed, that the Day before he ſailed 14 or 1500 Seamen were preſſed in the River, in order, as it was reported, to Man out a Fleet to aſſiſt the Ruſſians, as it was ſaid the French intended to join in the Turks againſt them.—Proclamations were likewiſe iſſued, offering a Reward of 30l. to all able bodied Seamen who would voluntarily inliſt.——

Last Wednesday a number of original Letters from some principal Men in this Province, were laid before the House of Representatives; on the Consideration of which they VOTED, "That the Tendency and Design of said Letters was to subvert the Constitution of this Government, and to introduce arbitrary Power into the Province."——There were 106 Members present, and only 5 dissentients. (1)

Last Thursday his Excellency the Governor was pleased to send the following Message to the House of Representatives.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

I am informed that certain private Letters said to have been wrote by me to a Gentleman in England lately deceased, were Yesterday laid before your House, and that you have come into a Resolution or Vote that they tend to subvert the Constitution.

I was never wrote any public or private Letter with such Intention, and am not conscious of any Letter which can have such an Effect. Before you take any further Proceedings, I must desire that a Transcript of the Proceedings of Yesterday be laid before me, and that I may be informed to what Letters they refer, in order to my considering what Steps are proper for me to take upon the Occasion.

T. HUTCHINSON.

To which the House on Saturday returned the following Answer.

May it please your Excellency, vid pa. 306

IN Answer to your Message of the third of June, the House of Representatives have resolved, that the Date of certain Letters now before them, referr'd to in the Message, together with a Transcript of the Proceedings thereon, as requested by your Excellency, be laid before you.

And as your Excellency has been pleased in your Message to say, that you have never wrote any public or private Letters, with an Intention to subvert the Constitution, it is the Desire of this House, that your Excellency would be pleased to order, that Copies be laid before us, of such Letters as your Excellency has written of those Dates, relating to the public Affairs of this Province, together with such other Letters as your Excellency shall think proper.

Last Tuesday Night, about 11 o'Clock, Captain Noble in a Sloop bound from hence to Surranam, unfortunately ran ashore near the Gurnet.—She has since been got off again, and brought up to Town to repair the Damage she received.

We hear from Hingham, that on Saturday last about Noon, the House of Mr. Seth Wilder, catched on Fire by a Spark from the Chimney, and was entirely consumed.

We hear that His Majesty's Ship Captain in heaving down at the Dock-Yard in Halifax to careen, sprung her Main-Mast, but she would be ready to sail some time the Beginning of this Month.

Last Tuesday Afternoon the House of Mr. Dennis Fernald, of Kittery, was struck by Lightning; which enter'd the Chimney, stove off the Bricks even with the Roof, then took its Course down one of the Posts, against which stood a Gun, run down the Barrel of that, splitting the Stock, from thence ran down a Stud, and killed Mr. John Perry, who had been a School-Master several Years in that Town.——It also ran down a Chimney in the back part of the House, and kill'd a Dog that lay on the Hearth; and tho' a Child stood near the Dog, it providentially escaped unhurt.

On Thursday last was married by the Reverend Mr. Howard, the Honorable David Higgins, of the Isle of St. John's, to Miss Betsy Prince, Daughter of Mr. Job Prince, Merchant, of this Town.

WE have Authority to assure the Public, that the Assertion reflecting on Col. Hancock in Thomas's Paper of Thursday last respecting the Cadets, is False, as Col. Hancock has the Honor of that Company as much at Heart, and was as full and free for expelling the two Members as any one of the Corps.—Their unsoldierly Behavior in deserting their Colours on the Day of Election, and their ungenteel refusal afterwards to attend their Duty, tho' particularly desired by the Colonel, was the Reason of their Expulsion, notwithstanding some few Men of more Zeal than Prudence, would very gladly attribute it to quite another Cause.
